Several incidences of damage to vehicles parked in Goddard Road had occurred and a dwelling burglary in the Market Place, although there were no signs of entry. SID: he had sought advice of the German manufacturer and Mr Gale had assisted him with checking the settings and radar detector which was working fine. 3/11 WILTSHIRE COUNCIL WASTE CONSULTATION:	There was nothing further to add. Cllr Mrs Hunt felt that the debate was no further forward after two years. Cllr Carder was concerned the data being collected was being used to close the HRC rather than to keep it open.
3/12 FOOTPATH MODIFICATION ORDER:	The clerk provided a history of the council's involvement in the modification order request. Cllr Haskell stated that this was not to be a major debate but to simply clarify the council's position. Cllr Mrs Hughes was happy with the situation as stated, as were Cllrs Hagan, Mrs Carmichael-Owen, Stevens, Ann Hogg, Mrs Dalrymple, Stephens, Eyles, Carder, Kerry Pycroft, Ford and Mrs Stevens. Cllr McGarry stated that he had read all of the documentation as he had not been a councillor at the time of the original meeting. He felt the council was correct and that the process should take its course. Cllr Fleming said council knew of his view from his previous comments which had not changed, and it was a mistake not to support a large party of parishioners. Cllr Giles would have liked the council to have been more specific. He read out a statement in which he concluded the local landowners had supported the parish over many years and that it would be inappropriate for the council to endorse the application. Cllr Haskell said the original proposal to lead the application had been voted on and was sympathetic to what has been said. Cllr Deck had been present at all meetings and listened carefully to both sides of the argument. Cllr Mrs Hunt had nothing further to add. The offer of a compromise by allowing a permissive path had not been taken by the walking group as the permission could be reversed at short notice. Cllr Smith said the original decision was the correct one.
3/13 PEWSEY VALE TOURISM PARTNERSHIP:	Cllr Smith had attended the meeting on 22 nd February. 	supported by the Heritage Centre. All the details of locations would be made available on the visitpewsey website. The maps of 1808 had been provided with permission of the British Library. The boards would be distributed at various places across the Vale. Cllr Haskell advised he had offered one to go alongside the White Horse Board as and when it was available. This would be at no cost to the Parish Council. The White Horse project was still with Wiltshire Council. Another project being explored was the creation of a film of the local area which could then be customised for individual businesses. If you anyone was interested in being included please let the Tourism Partnership know. The promotion of the Great West Way was going ahead and a brochure would be kept in the office. Cllr Haskell would pass on the council's congratulations to Susie Brew for all her hard work.

Mr Hurley agreed that it was only right to have photos of those who enter into the public domain.	RG
3/16 ITEMS FROM THE GENERAL PUBLIC:	Mr Hurley had nothing to raise.
3/17 CORRESPONDENCE:	Cllr Eyles had advised the Council that he was resigning as a Trustee and Steward of the Heritage Centre. Cllr Haskell thanked Cllr Eyles as he had represented the Parish Council for some time. Cllr Giles agreed to report would be the new representative.
